

March 11th, 2025.
Subject: Service Proposal

Fenix International Limited, (dba Only Fans)
Mr. Craig Hubble,
craig@of.com
General Counsel.

We appreciate your consideration of DLG for the provision of the services described below. This document outlines the scope and terms of our proposal. We remain available to discuss any related matters.

1. Scope of Services

This service proposal will have the objective of minimizing the tax exposure that the Client currently has on the ongoing tax audit, through a series of legal and policy strategies to be undertaken as follows.

As discussed with the Client, the services provided by DLG on the tax legal side would consist of a legal analysis, strategy design, and scenario planning and negotiation with the tax authorities, in order to optimally prepare, document and respond to audit requirements if still necessary, as well as legally consult current tax counsel on potential defense actions through the appropriate legal channels. The objective is to refute, if applicable, the tax authority's findings and minimize the corresponding tax costs related to the audit concerning the tax withholding obligations (ISR and VAT) that the authority claims should have been applied.

On a parallel track, a policy strategy will be outlined and implemented to present Clients' case before relevant stakeholders and improve chances of success. Both services are required to properly accompany the Client since in all spheres, technical and substantive arguments must be prepared, tested and properly explained before different actors.

DLG has the experience and capability to provide a comprehensive service, including analysis of the current status of the matter, strategy design, and conciliatory scenarios that, in strict compliance with the legal framework, may be an acceptable landing zone to the authorities. Additionally, we will provide support in negotiations with the tax authorities and the implementation of a favorable agreement for the Client within the framework of established legal procedures.

A) Situation analysis and strategy design.

In order to better suit the Clients request, our advisory services for the tax analysis will be divided into the following stages, with the corresponding scope and characteristics:

Stage 1. Analysis of Client's tax status and audit.

To begin this stage, the Client must provide relevant documentation to assess the current status of the matter, as well as any recent arguments or findings. DLG will then prepare a document objectively assessing the Clients' standing before the tax authority and outline next suggested steps before such authority.

DLG will deliver one single document including:

1. Diagnosis and possible arguments: A legal diagnosis and opinion contrasting the different scenarios and potential administrative solutions to be presented before the tax authorities. Along with a critical path to implement a strategy, considering the ongoing audit and potential scenarios, including conciliation procedures, self-correction, or other defense mechanisms before the SAT. This document will be delivered no later than 15 business days after the Client delivers relevant Tax information that will be requested by the firm in a kick off meeting.
2. Policy parallel strategy. Strategy outline. Along with the corresponding Tax strategy document, the policy team will also prepare a high-profile engagement strategy, with targeted public offices which might range from Ministry of Economy, Presidential Office, Ministry of Finance, Federal Digital Agency, and other relevant stakeholders that could be open to hear arguments and argue on Clients behalf before tax authority. This strategy will be delivered in the same timeframes as the tax strategy and discussed with Client to agree on the route to follow and receive green light for implementation.
3. SAT preliminary meetings. In this stage, after reviewing the Strategy. The firm will hold preliminary SAT meetings, under the condition that engagements are always preauthorized by the Client. These meetings will include a readout and minutes to the Client.

Stage 2. Strategy Implementation

Once the Client agrees on to the proposed critical path, the strategy will be implemented through the following actions:

1. Providing legal advice and addressing all necessary aspects in case the authority issues a tax liability determination as a result of the audit.
2. Assisting in drafting, advising, and submitting all necessary documents to achieve a successful conciliation or defense before the authorities.
3. Assisting in drafting, advising, and submitting all necessary documents to file a motion for reconsideration before the SAT, if applicable.
4. Parallel policy implementation. The firm will engage along with or in representation of the Client (up to the Client to decide), in high profile meetings with public stakeholders. Once the meetings are scheduled, regardless of who is attending the meeting, the firm and the Client will have preparatory meetings to discuss presentation materials, if applicable, specific purposes and the meetings and other relevant issues.

This stage may commence after SAT provides a final ruling on its audit, but it may also derive from previous meetings if there is an opportunity to negotiate before this ruling. The assessment on stage 1 might provide more information.

DLG's legal practice adheres to the highest ethical standards. Any interaction with government agencies, public entities, and their officials will be conducted under these principles. Any meetings that may take place with the firm's support to promote the strategy will always be conducted in accordance with our code of conduct, available for download, as well as the applicable legal framework. DLG commits to defending the Client's interests using all available legal tools and technical expertise while maintaining strict compliance with legal procedures before government authorities.

As discussed with Client, the firm will not represent or formally litigate the Tax matter in subsequent stages (challenge before SAT recurso de revision and/or judicial challenge) and will act as a consultant on the matter. If at some point the Client wishes to appoint the firm as its tax counsel, the firm is available to undertake the tasks immediately and prepare the corresponding service proposal.

2. Service Fees and Payment Schedule

DLG prioritizes providing Clients with flexible service engagement models tailored to their needs and business practices.

For this specific project, we propose a mixed fee structure based on project stages, whereby fees are tied to deliverables, along with a success-based fee structure contingent upon achieving favorable outcomes.

The work will be executed according to the following payment schedule:

A) Situation analysis and strategy design.

Stage 1: Analysis of Client's tax status and audit. A total fee of $20,000 (twenty thousand dollars) VAT not included, to be charged as follows:

- A) For the Diagnosis and the Strategy Document. A fee of $20,000 (twenty thousand dollars) plus VAT.
- B) For preliminary SAT meetings. A $5,000 (five thousand dollars) plus VAT cap on hourly fees. Including minutes for the meetings and preparatory readouts.

For the abovementioned cap, the hourly rates for DLG are:

Possition	Hourly rate (plus VAT)
Partner	$ 500 USD
Senior Associate	$ 300 USD
Junior Associate	$ 220 USD
Law Clerk	$ 110 USD

Stage 2: Implementation.

If a policy strategy is implemented, necessary meetings with key high-profile role authorities (Ministries of Economy, Finance, Foreign Affairs, a flat fee per meeting of $5,000.0 (five thousand US Dollars) plus applicable VAT will be charged. This fee includes all preparatory and strategy meetings with the Client and documents or presentations needed for the meeting.

2.A. Success Fee

Success fees will be duly negotiated with the Client after enough information is found on Stage 1, these talks will be held before engaging in meetings with the authority. This will allow for clearer information on tax liability and trigger events for the success fees.

If preliminary meetings with SAT allow for a success opportunity, the parties agree to discuss such fee in good faith when appropriate.

All fees priorly paid to the firm for services rendered on this matter, will be deducted from the success fee amount.

The legal service fees of DLG, specified in this section, do not include transportation and travel expenses outside Mexico City and its metropolitan area. If such expenses are strictly necessary for the provision of services, they must be previously authorized in writing by the Client and will be covered in advance or directly by the Client.

If the Client requests additional services or further legal defense stages, such as filing a nullity lawsuit or an amparo lawsuit, an additional written agreement may be included in this quotation. Such agreement will specify the timeline, amounts, and deliverables to be contracted.

The proposed fees are based on the assumption that the services will be provided according to the deliverables mentioned above. If, due to the nature of the matter, the workload required by the Client increases significantly, the fees will be reviewed and adjusted upon prior agreement with the Client.

4. Client Relationship

The Client has expressed the intention to make DLG a complimentary counsel in Mexico. To co-counsel with primary counsel on the matter. All communications with the Client will be protected by attorney-Client privilege.

The leading partner on this matter will be Max Alberto Diener Sala, responsible of handling and supervising this matter and may be assisted by any other partner, associate, or attorney of DLG in providing the services. The undersigned will also be the partner responsible for our relationship with the Client, including billing matters and the assignment of attorneys working on the case. Our goal is to provide high-quality, efficient, and timely services, and to that end, we will maintain communication with the Client throughout the provision of our services. However, the Client is guaranteed that, in the temporary absence of the undersigned, a DLG partner knowledgeable about the matter will always be available to provide immediate assistance.

While DLG maintains extensive relationships with its clients across various matters, it does not serve as their advisor for all their legal and/or economic-financial needs. Its services are limited to the specific matters entrusted to it. Our relationship may be expanded beyond the matters described above, provided that the specific terms and conditions of engagement are agreed upon in advance.

The attorney-client relationship is established exclusively with the Client. Unless otherwise agreed, DLG will not represent any of the Client's employees, officers, shareholders, subsidiaries, or affiliates, whether directly or indirectly.

4. Confidentiality of Information

Due to professional secrecy obligations and the privilege inherent in the attorney-client relationship, all information provided by the Client to DLG is confidential, unless instructed otherwise by the Client. DLG has a strict Code of Conduct, under which any partner, associate, or collaborator working on DLG matters is required to maintain the highest level of confidentiality regarding client matters. This Code also establishes the obligations and ethical guidelines that all DLG personnel must follow when providing services to or representing the Client or the firm.

However, if the Client so wishes, DLG, as a legal entity, or its partners and collaborators individually, will sign the necessary confidentiality agreements, ensuring the Client's peace of mind regarding the handling of its information.

Upon completing specific matters for the Client, DLG will close its files related to those matters. Upon completion of our engagement, and at the Client's request, we will return any Client-owned materials in DLG's possession. In accordance with our professional obligations, we may retain copies of original documents and records related to the matter, including work products, notes, and administrative records, in either electronic or hard copy format. Throughout our relationship, DLG may process and store Client-provided materials in an electronic document management and storage system. In such cases, we may return copies to the Client or store them within the firm, and upon termination of our relationship, we will return them to the Client.

5. Handling Potential Conflicts of Interest

DLG advises multiple clients on a wide variety of matters across different areas of practice. The professional ethics rules governing the legal profession in Mexico allow attorneys to represent clients in matters that may be directly adverse to other clients, provided those matters are distinct from the ones entrusted to them. Therefore, we will handle matters for the Client in a manner consistent with the professional ethics rules applicable to attorneys in Mexico, as well as in accordance with the terms of the firm's Code of Conduct, which is available for download on the website previously mentioned.

DLG would be honored to provide the legal services described in this proposal, should we be selected. We hope this proposal meets your needs. If you agree with the above terms, please sign and return a copy of this document. If you have any questions regarding this proposal, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jorge González Gallástegui
Partner DLG Abogados

Agreed and accepted.

DocuSigned by:

CEF150B025814AA...

Mr. Lee Taylor
CFO Fenix International Limited (dba OnlyFans)

Annex 1. OnlyFans Guidelines for Outside Counsel

The following guidelines were sent by the Client and are hereby transcribed as part of this engagement letter. The firm expresses its commitment to comply with such guidelines.

ONLYFANS - GUIDELINES FOR OUTSIDE COUNSEL

OnlyFans and its parent, subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, "OnlyFans") highly values its relationships with Outside Counsel. These Guidelines clarify the practices and procedures that OnlyFans expects Outside Counsel to follow.

These Guidelines are incorporated by reference into any engagement agreement(s) with Outside Counsel performing any type of legal services for OnlyFans. Outside Counsel should not depart from them without express approval of OnlyFans.

Please ensure all timekeepers working on OnlyFans matters have received and are familiar with these Guidelines. Failure to follow these guidelines may cause us to adjust or reject invoices and impact on payment.

OnlyFans' Approach to Legal Advice and Onboarding Requirements

Our overriding objective is to bring value to the business balancing case/contract value, reputational risk, operational importance, legal costs and the matter's significance to OnlyFans' mission to serve our creator community.

To be effective partners, all Outside Counsel must familiarize themselves with our platform. Each team member must sign up for a creator account on the platform and should familiarize themselves with OnlyFans policies and procedures. Outside Counsel must share each team member's username to confirm that signup is complete. Anytime a new billing timekeeper is added to the team in future please ensure they do the same. This should be completed at no cost to us.

General Guidelines

Staff matters efficiently

The lead Outside Counsel must be personally and directly involved in the representation. He or she is solely responsible for ensuring that OnlyFans's objectives for the engagement are met. Teams should be as large as necessary and as small as possible. Timekeepers should be kept to a minimum, the ratio of associates to partners should be low, and continuity of staffing is paramount.

Staff each engagement with personnel whose competence and experience match

Annex 1. OnlyFans Guidelines for Outside Counsel

the complexity of the legal matter and the risk exposure. Where appropriate, delegate work suitable to more junior attorneys to timekeepers with lower rates and to other personnel who have subject matter expertise and experience appropriate to the task.

Hourly rates for all timekeepers should be disclosed on a Fee Card provided to OnlyFans with the engagement agreement. Unless otherwise specified, hourly rates are fixed for each matter when the matter is opened. Any rate increase requests for a specific matter must be submitted in writing and approved by OnlyFans before Outside Counsel bills at the higher rates. Tie any request for hourly rate increases to a specific and mutually-agreed reason

Unless OnlyFans provides prior approval, do not bill for more than two counsel to participate in a meeting, attend a hearing, deposition or settlement conference, or otherwise handle casework requiring an appearance of counsel. In complex matters, it may sometimes be appropriate for multiple attorneys to attend significant events and for members of the firm to consult with each other. Additional timekeepers will be pre-approved for those instances.

Please minimize internal conferences and time billed for drafting and reading internal email correspondence. Where internal conferences or communications are necessary, bill only for the timekeeper with the highest hourly rate who participated in the internal conference or devoted time to the internal correspondence.

Absent prior approval, OnlyFans will pay for a maximum of twelve (12) hours billed by a single timekeeper in a single day. OnlyFans may increase that number of permissible hours in matters of special urgency or where cases are in, or approaching, trial.

OnlyFans will not pay for training expenses, such as reviewing local rules and procedures. OnlyFans will not pay for time spent learning new systems or time spent by an attorney or paralegal performing tasks that secretarial or administrative staff are capable of performing. Additionally, do not bill OnlyFans for: (i) secretaries, (ii) librarians, (iii) clerks (billing, file, etc.), (iv) word processors, (v) internal couriers, (vi) law clerks or (vii) summer associates.

Document preparation and review

Always provide OnlyFans with a reasonable opportunity to review, comment on and approve such documents. Send all drafts to OnlyFans with ample time for meaningful review. Aim to allow at least one week for OnlyFans to review and approve any major brief or filing.

Never submit any motion, brief, settlement offer, or other material correspondence with opposing counsel or a court without the prior review and approval of OnlyFans.

Expense and Disbursement Guidelines

OnlyFans will reimburse Outside Counsel only for incurred out-of-pocket expenses with no mark-up, provided those expenses are reasonable and comply with these

Annex 1. OnlyFans Guidelines for Outside Counsel

Guidelines.

OnlyFans expects Outside Counsel to use its best efforts to minimize reimbursable out-of-pocket costs both by avoiding unnecessary expenditures and by taking advantage of volume discounts and bulk arrangements that may be available.

Administrative costs and overhead

Unless expressly agreed in writing, OnlyFans will not pay for routine law firm costs and tasks, as it is expected that Outside Counsel's hourly rates include all administration and overhead costs. Administrative tasks and overhead items include, without limitation:

- administrative, clerical, and secretarial staff work, word processing, and proofreading (including staff overtime charges);
- routine administrative tasks incidental to an engagement, such as conflicts checks, file creation, organization, and maintenance, time spent preparing invoices, discussing or resolving billing inquiries or disputes, maintenance of a calendar or tickler system, and budgeting tasks;
- time spent on duplicative tasks or "getting up to speed" due to staff turnover or unavailability;
- basic research on matters presumed to be within the firm's expertise or redundant of previous research conducted recently regarding the same legal or procedural issue;
- responses to requests from OnlyFans's external auditors;
- time spent or costs associated with preparing, transferring, closing, or destroying files or records, including to OnlyFans or new counsel;
- communication charges including phone and video conferencing services;
- routine postage and courier fees;
- online legal research, subscription or service charges (e.g., Westlaw, LexisNexis, Courtlink and Pacer);
- document scanning, copying, collating, or binding;
- temporary office space or conference room charges;
- catering for internal meetings; and
- any other general administrative tasks or overhead expenses.

Experts and Consultants

Do not engage any expert, consultant, local or other counsel, or third-party vendors for a matter without first discussing the engagement with OnlyFans and obtaining OnlyFans's approval for such engagement.

Travel

Do not bill OnlyFans for non-working travel time. OnlyFans will pay for time spent working on an OnlyFans matter during travel, with customary itemization of the actual work performed.

Annex 1. OnlyFans Guidelines for Outside Counsel

Travel economy or coach class on all flights less than four (4) hours in duration. OnlyFans will reimburse business class fares for flights greater than four (4) hours and for international flights. OnlyFans will reimburse economy plus or business class fares, by exception, for large travelers, tall travelers, or travelers with a disability that may inhibit travel in economy or coach class.

Billing Guidelines

Every invoice submitted for payment to OnlyFans must reflect the billing judgment of lead Outside Counsel with respect to the quality and efficiency of the services rendered. Do not submit invoices that seek remuneration for non-billable time or expenses as outlined herein.

Block bill: submit no more than one time entry per timekeeper, per day. Break down every time entry to record the time spent on each task and provide enough detail to show each task that was performed and how it contributed to the progress of the case. Use present tense.

This time entry is unacceptable:

Hours	Description
1.5	Review plaintiff's interrogatory responses; prepared letter to opposing counsel; work on summary judgment motion.

An acceptable method to enter this time entry would be:

Hours	Description
1.5	Review plaintiff's interrogatory responses (.3); draft letter to opposing counsel regarding settlement options (.4); continue drafting motion for summary judgment (.8).

OnlyFans does not pay for time billed in incomplete or vague time entries. Examples of incomplete or vague entries include "research" without identifying the specific issue(s) researched; "conference," "confer," or "meeting" without identifying each party involved and the topics discussed; referring to work on discovery or pleadings without identifying the specific tasks and type of discovery or pleading involved; and using vague terms such as "work on" without identifying the specific work performed (review, draft, analyze, etc.).

OnlyFans reserves the right to modify these Guidelines and will provide Outside Counsel with written notice prior to any modification taking place.

Annex 1. OnlyFans Guidelines for Outside Counsel

Questions concerning these Guidelines should be directed to OnlyFans.